GAS

Exploded on Submarine Boat.

Fatal Injury

Sustained by Half Dozen of the Men.

The Vessel Escaped Without Much Injury Although Violent Explosion.

The Boat Was Submerged at the Time of the Explosion of the Accumulation of Gas.

Lewes Del. April 30.—An explosion of considerable severity, which injured half a dozen persons, occurred on the submarine boat Fulton as she was running into the harbor of the Delaware breakwater. The boat was towed from Brooklyn to Norfolk, and was partly submerged when the accident occurred. The most seriously injured are: Lieutenant Oscar Kohen of the Austrian navy, severely bruised; Lieutenant Arthur MacArthur, United States navy, cut about the head; Harry Moore, assistant engineer, injured about the head; C. B. Miner, assistant engineer, nose split; Charles Bechtel, gunner, severely hurt on head. The explosion was caused by an accumulation of gas which had been generated by the storage battery. Although the explosion was a great one, the vessel was only slightly injured. She will be towed to the Neafie and company's station at New Suffolk for repairs as soon as the weather moderates. It will take several days to put the battery in serviceable condition.

On account of the rough weather at sea it was decided by the commander of the Fulton to put into the Delaware breakwater and it was while the boat, partly under water, was rounding the great stone breakwater, that the explosion occurred. Nine men were in the hold and three men on deck at the time. Assistant Engineer Miner, who was lying beside Lieutenant MacArthur, was thrown several feet away. Lieutenant MacArthur, who is a son of General MacArthur, and Bechtel were at breakfast. The former was hurled against the roof of the cabin, injuring his head. Bechtel was struck by heavy debris, and was so badly hurt that he was unable to care for himself, and others helped him to the deck, making their escape as the hold was rapidly filling with gasoline fumes. Captain Frank Cable, Lieutenant H. H. Merrill and Boatswain Charles Berg were on deck when the explosion occurred, and signalled the tug Storm King and the yacht Mindora, which convoyed the Fulton here for assistance. The steam launch Palacea, being near, also went alongside and took the injured men ashore. Considerable bravery was shown by Engineer Saunders. After the explosion the engines continued to work. He wrapped his head and face in a wet towel and went below and stopped them.

Detroit, Mich., April 30.—Crazed by the death of her three-year-old child by scarlet fever, Mrs. Adalaide Sage, 36 years of age, of Locust street, left her bed at 4 o'clock this morning, poured a gallon of kerosene over her night robe and set herself on fire. Screaming with pain, she dashed from the house, her husband and neighbors in pursuit. Before she could be overtaken, the flames had done their work and she was dead.

PADEREWSKI

Given a Send Off He Will Long Remember.

New York, Apr. 30.—Paderewski sailed for Europe this morning and so many hysterical females, young and old, gathered on the pier, that an extra detail of police was necessary to keep Paderewski from being mobbed by the affectionate ladies. He is safely stowed on board at last and is nearly smothered with floral offerings.

SAMAR ORDER

Arouses the Indignation of Senator Teller,

Who Devotes His Time and Talent to Pounding General Smith.

Washington, April 30. — A spirited discussion of the Philippines situation occurred in the senate. It revolved around the order alleged to have been issued by General Jacob Smith to make the island of Samar a howling wilderness and kill all male inhabitants over 10 years of age. Mr. Teller declared that General Smith, if he had issued such an order as had been attributed to him, ought to be dismissed from the service, as it was a disgrace to the American army and to the American people. Mr. Lodge said that while he knew little of the circumstances surrounding the alleged order, he did not approve of cruel methods in warfare, and every right-minded person must regret General Smith's order. To him it was revolting. He defended the administration, however, saying as soon as knowledge of the order had come to Washington the president had directed that General Smith be courtmartialed.

ENCOUNTER

Between Robbers and Officers Results

In One of the Latter Being Seriously Injured by a Chisel Blow on the Head.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 30.—Five burglars blew open the safe in Daub and Pressler's grocery store, on Craft avenue, in Crafton, at 1:30 o'clock this morning. The explosion aroused the citizens and a desperate fight ensued between the officers, citizens and thieves. One officer was shot and another struck with a chisel. The burglars escaped with one cash box containing about $30. The injured are: Officer Thos. Wescott, shot in the leg; officer Wm. M. Peck, struck on the head with a heavy chisel; condition serious. Between 20 and 30 shots were exchanged. During the flight, the burglars dropped one cash box containing a large sum, which was found by their pursuers.

Three burglars were caught at McKees Rocks, and positively identified. They are Jos. Sullivan, Edward Lawson, and Alonzo Black. One was caught as he was trying to swim across Chartiers creek fully dressed.

ACCORDING

To the Kentucky Way of Doing Things.

Bradberg, Ky., April 30.—A mob of sixty men from Guston came to the county jail at 2 o'clock this morning and demanded Ernest Bewley, a negro, who yesterday shot Harvey Dowell, white, in a saloon row. The negro had been brought here for safe keeping, after a brief parley, the jailer handed over the prisoner, who was taken a short distance from the town and hanged to a tree.

Troops Necessary.

Manilla, April 30. — The American chamber of commerce has passed a resolution indorsing the action of the United States army in the Philippines in an endeavor to counteract what the members of that chamber believe to be the opinion prevailing in the United States, that officers and soldiers have acted in violation of the rules of war. The preamble says the chamber is composed exclusively of American business men, who have been thrown into immediate contact with the prevailing conditions everywhere in the archipelago, and it was resolved that without the constant watchfulness and protection of the army in the Philippines, no property or business interests would be safe, and that upon its influence depends the stability of the civil government.

SENT

The Measure to Its Grave.

Decker's Bill

To Extend the Provisions of Nichols Law

Was Killed by the Deciding Vote of Lieutenant Governor Nippert.

The Measure was Introduced by Senator Wm. E. Decker, of This Senatorial District.

Columbus, O., April 30.—Lieutenant Nippert cast the deciding vote which carried the Decker taxation bill to its grave by the indefinite postponement route, the vote on the motion standing 13 to 13. Several Republican members were absent from their seats when the bill was called up by Senator Longworth, and Mr. Wilhelm, the member from Stark, voted with the Democrats against the motion to indefinitely postpone. Mr. Decker secured the floor and defended his measure, which would have extended the provisions of the Nichols law to all public service corporations. He charged that the Republicans had acted in bad faith by defeating some of the compensatory measures which had been promised the private corporations. Senator Longworth replied to Mr. Decker. He said the record on the tax question had been made up, and that the Republican majority was not afraid of the result.

These bills were passed by the senate: H. B., increasing the penalty for rape and allowing the court to hear mitigating testimony; H. B., authorizing the court to withdraw an order for a private sale of real estate and authorizing a public sale after 30 days; H. B., providing that the statute of limitation shall not be pleaded by executors and guardians of estates; H. B., compelling county clerks to make immediate entry of judgments; H. B., providing that security for costs shall not be required when labor claims are concerned; H. B., providing for filing mortgages of telegraph, telephone and kindred property in the office of the county recorder instead of in the townships through which the lines pass; H. B., making service on railway ticket or freight agent sufficient to compel lighting of a bridge; H. B., authorizing county commissioners to pay principal and interest on armory bonds declared unconstitutional.

The senate concurred in the passage of Mr. Buc.'s house bill extending the terms of county clerks from August to January, a period of five months, the bill providing that the clerks shall take their office in January instead of during the month of August. The senate also concurred in the adoption of Mr. Rannell's house joint resolution, amending the constitution of the state so as to provide that all counties shall have at least one representative in the general assembly.

The senate made laws of the Roland and McNamee bills providing that all passenger and freight trains shall be run with full crews, and providing penalties for violation of the laws.

In the House.

The appropriation bills and the deficiency bills have all passed the house, and all three bear a close resemblance to the documents which left the committee room. The second bill went through with several amendments, reducing some of the items and increasing others. One of the hardest efforts to amend the bill was made by Representative Gear of Wyandot county, who is determined to secure an appropriation to build an armory and gymnasium at the Soldiers and Sailors Orphans' home at Xenia. He succeeded in getting an appropriation of $6,000.

There is now evidence that the game bill muddle will be cleared. Mr. Jones of the committee on conference reported to the house that the committee had completed its work, and recommended that the senate concur in the house amendments. The report was at once adopted. It now remains to be seen if the senate will adopt a similar report and thus make a law of the much-discussed bill.

The house adopted a resolution by Mr. Allen of Fulton county restoring the old order of session. Hereafter the house will convene at 10 a. m. and adjourn on Fridays at 11 a. m.

The Royer bill to permit lines of railway not competing to consolidate was made a law by the house. The bill was introduced for the benefit of the Pennsylvania company, which wants to extend its line over the Vandalia, which it now controls, to St. Louis.

Mr. Bracken's bill to prevent cheap soap swindles was made half a law. The bill forbids the adulteration of soap by the use of soap stone.

The Roll bill, which sought to prevent divorced persons from marrying within one year from the date of the divorce, was defeated in the house.

A motion was made and carried to reconsider the vote by which the Longworth taxation bill was passed. This bill amended the foreign corporation tax law so that the governor and the secretary of state could remit penalties when they saw fit. Mr. Meisel charged openly on the floor of the house while explaining his vote that deception had been practiced.

Springfield, O., April 30.—At the meeting of the board of directors of the Wittenberg college it was decided to offer free tuition for one year to the high school graduate receiving the highest grades. This will affect Ohio, Indiana, southern Michigan and northern Kentucky.

SEVEN DEAD

As a Result of a False Cry of Fire.

Hundreds of Girls Employed in a Cigar Factory

Become Panic Stricken and Mutilate One Another in a Mad Effort to Escape From the Building.

Philadelphia, April 30. — Some one raised a false cry of fire at noon today in the Harburger and Homan cigar factory at Tenth street and Washington avenue. Several hundred girls employed were thrown into a frenzy of panic and sprang from the windows There were 1000 girls in the factory, who made frantic efforts to escape from the fourth, third and second floors. They were piled six or seven deep in a narrow stairway, where they fought each other, biting one another's arms and faces, tearing hair from each other's heads and trampling to death those underneath. One woman sprang from the fourth story window and was killed. The total list of dead at 1:30 p. m. is seven, and there are about 20 injured.

Later.

The panic was caught by a boy who had his finger caught in an elevator and screamed. One of the girls misinterpreted the cry and yelled, "fire." That was all. The U. S. storehouse of the Schuylkill arsenal occupies the first floor of the building. The employes rushed out and tried to stem the human tide which congested in a four feet wide stairway. They were fought by insane girls and one of them, named Comley, was badly bitten. The stirs are winding and have windows, protected by iron and wooden bars. These bars are covered with blood and pieces of human finger nails torn from hands seeking to tear a way to safety. It is expected that the number of dead will reach at least ten.

DAN JOHNSON

Talks About the Suit in Injunction

Restraining Three Players From Playing With Any Other League.

Baltimore, April 30.—President Ban Johnson of the American league was in this city. Speaking of the injunction restraining Lajoie, Frazer and Bernhard from playing with any other than the Philadelphia National league club, Mr. Johnson said: "We have ample grounds for a new appeal to the supreme court, and while this is pending the injunction issued by the lower court will be raised. We will give bond and the three players concerned will be at liberty to play with the Athletics. Should the decision again be unfavorable to us, we can take Lajoie's case to United States court. The cases of the other two men can not be taken there, because the amount involved is less than $2,000. Our attorneys are confident, and I share their confidence that we will win out."

"Complete tickets must be nominated in every district and county," Mr. Pinney said, "and the nominees for congress must be men who can and will take the stump and keep at work until election day." He declared that once the vote reached 100,000 the next election would see the party in power. He characterized the Anti-saloon league as a failure. A central committee of 21 members was named and will continue the present state executive committee, with George L. Case of Cleveland as chairman. The Train Which Was Late Was Running at a Tremendous Speed When It Was Derailed.

Keokuk, Ia., April 30.—The California limited on the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe road, eastbound, was derailed on a curve at Cama, a switch five miles west of Medill, Mo., while going at tremendous speed. Five persons were killed and 23 injured. The killed: S. T. French, Chicago; Mr. Weltheiner, Santiago, Cal.; a son of Henry C. Gates of Australia, five years old; two others whose names are not obtained. The injured include the conductor, Charles Sargent, and a twin sister of the Gates boy. The parents of the twins were also badly bruised. Mr. and Mrs. Gates were en route from Australia and were, with their children, eating in the dining car when the wreck occurred.

The train was over an hour late and passed Wyacondott, the last station west, at the rate of 65 miles an hour. When the heavy train struck the curve at Cama the rails spread. The train consisted of two mail cars, seven Pullmans and one dining car. The mail car, the dining car and the forward sleepers went into the ditch. The tender was ditched, but the engine remained on the track. The derailed coaches were smashed to kindling wood, even the axles being bent out of shape. The conductor went to a farmhouse and telephoned an account of the wreck. Assistance was sent from Fort Madison.

The trainmen worked nobly, assisted by unhurt passengers and neighboring farmers. The place of the wreck is distant from all communication. Every effort is being made to complete the list of dead and wounded, but most of the latter are in the hospital at Fort Madison and those in charge refuse information.

FORGER

Arrested and May Come to the Grand Jury.

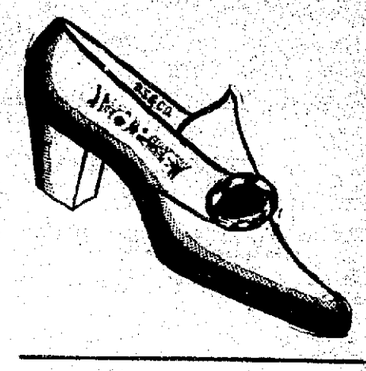

Martin Weber, who has been taking up oil leases in this vicinity for some time, for J. I. Gillispie, of Toledo, is again in trouble, says the Delphos Herald. Last Saturday he appeared at the Delphos National bank with a check to the amount of $25, which had on it the name of J. I. Gillispie. The money was paid over to Weber, and it was afterwards supposed that the check was a forgery.

The cashier of the bank, E. L. Stallkamp, swore out a warrant for the arrest of Weber and consequently, Monday afternoon, he was locked up. Mr. Gillispie was telegraphed of what had transpired and came to Delphos Monday afternoon. He says he had never given Weber a check of this kind which is evidence that his intention was to get money under false pretenses.

Weber was given a preliminary hearing before Mayor Wilsen Monday evening and pleaded not guilty, his trial was set for Wednesday morning, and the case may be left to the grand jury.

Good Day for Suckers.

A stranger with a scheme carried the town of Delphos by storm and in a few moments swept into his pockets a sum equal to the average man's monthly wages. He advertised an auction sale of two hundred boxes and unopened packages. It was given out that they contained more than thin air and this statement caught the speculative. They crowded before the auction block, bid fast and furious and carried away the prizes. One fellow in his excitement purchased thirty. The packages contained phials of bed bug poison, cheap jewelry and trinkets. Not one of them was worth more than a few cents.

THE WEATHER AND MORALS

Wind and storm have a great and direct influence upon morals, says Professor Dexter, of the University of Illinois, in the Popular Science Monthly. He has carefully tabulated a long series of experiments, and finds that when the wind does not blow harder than four miles an hour, children stay at home from school in three times as great numbers, more policemen are off duty, more errors are made by bank clerks, and more people die. He discovers also that women and children are more susceptible to storm and calm than men, and that fewer serious crimes are committed during calm days, and he interprets his statistics in this way: "During calms," he says, "those life phenomena which are due to depleted vitality are excessive, and those which are due to excessive vitality are deficient in number." In explanation of this state of affairs there are two general hypotheses. The first is based upon the general facts bearing upon ventilation, and the second upon those of atmospheric electricity. The first would only be applicable to the conditions of large cities, while the second would be valid for any spot on the earth's surface. If the normal proportions of oxygen are to be maintained in the immediate vicinity of great combustion of oxygen, fresh air must by some means be brought in to take the place of that the normal mixture of which has been disturbed. We are quite familiar with these facts in their bearing upon the ventilation of buildings, but there is no difference, except that of magnitude, between a building in which the air is being robbed of its oxygen through combustion and a city in which the same process is going on. —Harper's Weekly.

That is the result of a course of treatment with Scott's Emulsion. We have special reference to persons with weak lungs and sensitive throats.

Scott's Emulsion does some things better than others. This is one of them. It has a peculiar action on the throat and lungs which gives them strength and makes them tough.

That's how Scott's Emulsion drives out coughs, colds and bronchitis. It keeps them out, too.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

WILL

OfDr. Marsh Leaves a Bequest

To a Lima Girl

Who is the Daughter of W. E. Hess.

Marriage of Young Lady Who Formerly Made Lima Her Home.

C. H. Braun Left Today for British Columbia, Where He Goes With a Shay Locomotive.

With considerable difficulty an attorney at Clinton, In., has succeeded in locating Miss Letta Hess, who is a beneficiary under the will of the late Dr. H. S. Marsh, of Clinton, to the extent of one thousand dollars. This bequest is the amount of a life insurance drawn for her benefit. The fortunate little girl is the nine year old daughter of W. E. Hess, of south Main street. He has communicated with the attorney at Clinton regarding the matter. If necessary he will go there to complete a legal settlement in behalf of his daughter. Dr. Marsh has frequently visited in south Lima, being a guest at the Hess home about a year ago. Since then they have heard nothing of him, knowing nothing of his death, nor of his provision for their daughter until yesterday.

Unsatisfactory Operation.

Dr. Ricketts, of Cincinnati, assisted by Dr. A. S. Rudy, of south Main street operated upon Harry Young, of Broadway, at the city hospital this morning. It was thought the young man was suffering from a tumor, but the affliction proved to be a cancer of the stomach. Unfortunately, the malady is so developed that the physicians were unable to attain any very encouraging results.

Married Today.

Miss Maude Dilley, formerly of east Vine street, was married at Indianapolis, Ind., today to John McCleord, a prosperous young business man of that city. They will reside there. Many friends of the bride wish her every possible happiness in her new home and relationship.

A Long Trip.

C. H. Braun, of east Eureka street, left today for British Columbia, where he goes in charge of a Shay engine purchased by a firm in that province. He will be absent some time. The trip will undoubtedly prove a very pleasant one.

Real Estate Change.

Ruben Peck, yesterday sold to A. J. Griffin his residence property on south West street. The deal was quite an important one. The purchaser will take possession as soon as the premises are vacated by the former owner.

Birthday Anniversary.

Little Gladys Ransbottom, of west Kibby street, entertained a number of her juvenile friends from four until six o'clock yesterday afternoon in observance of her ninth birthday anniversary. The young folk enjoyed the occasion immensely. An elegant luncheon was served before the guests departed.

Will Move to Celina.

W. W. Cummings, a well known resident of south Lima, went to Celina, yesterday, accompanied by his wife. Their many local friends will regret to learn they are arranging to remove from here to Celina, where they will reside in the future.

Social Gatherings.

The young peoples society of the south side Christian church conducted a pleasant and profitable social at the home of Miss May Finfrock on south Pine street, last night. They desired to earn a sum for the benefit of their department and were successful beyond their expectations. The patronage was liberal. Serving refreshments was interspersed with a musical and literary program of worth.

Mrs. William Dobbins was hostess to the ladies' missionary society of the south Main street Presbyterian church this afternoon. The assemblage was an agreeable one mutually beneficial.

Dogs Poisoned.

Some miscreant is again engaged in the nefarious occupation of the wholesale extermination of canines owned by persons residing on St. Johns avenue. The maliciously disposed person observed no discrimination; curs and valuable dogs, being alike victims of his iniquitous efforts. Among the dogs killed by the malignant poisoner was an excellent Newfoundland, owned by Henry Dean; also a valuable terrier, belonging to Mrs. W. E. Slater. Several other dogs of more or less value, owned by various persons in the neighborhood were also poisoned. Overlooking the intention of the guilty person, the intense suffering inflicted upon the dumb animals by the act, is a thing in itself deserving severest condemnation.

A Young Genious.

Walter Dean, the talented young son of Henry Dean, of St. Johns avenue, has developed a commendable knowledge of electrical mechanism. Having a strong inclination for mechanics, he has been encouraged to develope the propensity. His tendency to electrical experiments has terminated in his construction of a miniature electric light plant in the basement of his father's residence. The young artisan has manifested rare tact in the mechanical arrangement, into which he has introduced some original ideas demonstrating remarkable inventive powers for one so young. The youthful wizard has an elaborately equipped labratory where he practices electrical conjuring daily. His father contemplates sending him to the Ohio State University at Columbus to take an extensive course in electrical studies.

REMAINS

Of Conrad Bitzer Laid to Rest

In Elmgrove Cemetery at St. Marys Yesterday.

Funeral Services Held From Late Residence of the Deceased. Many Beautiful Floral Offerings.

The St. Marys News, of yesterday, contained the following:

"The funeral of Conrad Bitzer was held from his late home on Wayne street at 2:30 this afternoon, and was without a doubt one of the saddest occasions that has taken place in St. Marys for a long time. As a slight token of the esteem in which he was held by the business men of St. Marys they had a beautiful floral tribute prepared and placed near the head of the casket. It was in the shape of a Davenport, emblematical of the business in which the deceased had been engaged, made entirely of flowers; 20 inches high, 30 inches deep and nearly 4 feet long. Besides this token, many other floral tributes surrounded the casket as testimony of the love and esteem in which he was held by the donors.

While the loss of Mr. Bitzer is a great blow to the business and social interests of St. Marys, yet it cannot be compared with the irreparable loss which the bereaved wife and children have sustained, and the hearts of all our people are full of sympathy for the afflicted ones.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Lounsberry, of the M. E. church, and the remains were laid to rest in Elmgrove cemetery."

A PRETTY POSTMISTRESS NARROWLY ESCAPES DEATH.

Was Given Up to Die—Eight Doctors Failed—Pe-ru-na Saved Her Life.

THOUSANDS of women suffer from systemic catarrh. This is sure to produce such symptoms as cold feet and hands, sick headache, palpitation of the heart and heavy feelings in the stomach.

Then begins a series of experiments with medicine. They take medicine for sick headache. They take medicine for nervous prostration, for palpitation of the heart, for dyspepsia. None of these medicines do any good because they do not reach the cause of the complaint.

Peruna at once mitigates all these symptoms by removing the cause.

Systemic catarrh is the trouble. Systemic catarrh pervades the whole system, deranges every organ, weakens every function. No permanent cure can be expected until the systemic catarrh is removed.

This is exactly what Peruna will do.

Miss Alma Cox, Assistant Postmistress of Orum, S. C., writes:

"I have been a great sufferer from chronic disease and dyspepsia for five years. How I suffered no tongue can tell. I tried eight or ten of the best physicians without receiving much benefit, also tried lots of patent medicines. But still I suffered with sick headache, cold feet and hands, palpitation of the heart, and such a heavy feeling in my stomach and chest. At times I would be so nervous I could not bear anyone around me. I had been given up to die.

"One day a friend sent me one of Dr. Hartman's pamphlets, and I decided to write to him. He advised Peruna and Manalin, and after taking the medicine two weeks I felt greatly relieved. My head did not pain me any scarcely, and my stomach was relieved of its heavy feeling. I am so thankful that I can say after using several bottles of the Peruna and Manalin I am restored to perfect health.

"Before using your remedies I could not eat anything. I lived on barley water and Panopeptin for two years. Now I can eat with pleasure. Everybody is so surprised at my improvement. Everyone says I am looking like a rose. I would advise all suffering women to take your remedies. I know if it were not for Peruna and Manalin I would have been in my grave to-day. I cannot thank you enough for the kind advice you have given me."—MISS ALMA L. COX.

Senator M. C. Butler, ex-Governor of South Carolina, writes from Washington, D. C., the following:

"I can recommend Peruna for dyspepsia and stomach trouble. I have been using your medicine for a short period, and I feel very much relieved. It is indeed a wonderful medicine, and besides a great tonic"—M. C. Butler.

Peruna restores health in a normal way.

Peruna puts right all the mucous membranes of the body, and in this way restores the functions of every organ.

LIMA

Bids Farewell to the Boys

Who Are Called

To Fill New Positions on the C. H. & D.

Supt. Shoemaker Left This Morning for Connersville, Ind.

And Dispatcher Tharp, Who Goes to Dayton Tomorrow, Will be the Last of the Force to Leave the City.

Tomorrow the C. H. & D. system will adjust itself to the new order of things and there will be several vacant chairs in the general offices here. Assistant superintendent Shoemaker left this morning for Connersville, Ind., where he will be located as superintendent of the Indianapolis division, but will return again before taking up his permanent residence there. His family, now living on Bellefontaine avenue, will leave Lima as soon as a suitable residence is secured at their new home.

Dispatcher Packard made his adieus to the boys this afternoon and left on No. 3 at 4:20 for Dayton, where he will report for duty tomorrow morning. Dispatcher Lanker and operator Roe leave on No. 9 at six o'clock this evening and will get a glimpse of the Gem city by gas light before called into service.

B. M. Tharp will work his last trick in Lima from 3 o'clock until eleven tonight and will leave for Dayton on No. 1 tomorrow morning.

That completes the list of removals and leaves Dispatcher Louy, Reel and Smith in Lima to look after the north division, and Hagerman at the operator's key. Mr. Packard's family will remain in Lima for the present and Mr. Tharp's three children will be left in care of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Emmett, of Harrison avenue, until fall, when Mr. Tharp will go to housekeeping again at Dayton, it being the intention of Mr. and Mrs. Emmet to make their home with him.

A Candidate Again.

Official notice of the date of the election for a member of the advisory board of the Pennsylvania Voluntary Relief association was made Saturday by posting bulletins upon the various bulletin boards. The votes will not be received later than May 6 and the counting will commence Wednesday, May 21. So far only one candidate is out for that position from the western division, and that one is Conductor M. O. Ginty, formerly of Lima, who is now serving his first term. It is not likely that Mr. Ginty will have opposition.

New Yards at Toledo.

It is expected that work will commence within the next couple of weeks on the new yards of the C. H. & D. in Toledo. The officials of the company having the matter in charge have not as yet reached a decision as to the location, having three or four sites in view, but this is to be decided within the next couple of days and it is expected that work on the new yards will be taken up at once. The yards will probably be located either near Bates Siding or Rossford. There will be 24 tracks and they will have a capacity of about 1,000 cars. The old yards are to be given over largely to ore and coal. Another ore trestle is to be erected at once.

Three Months Record.

According to a bulletin just issued by the interstate commerce commission showing the number of accidents on the railroads of the country during the three months ending September 31, 1901, there were 725 persons killed. The total number of those injured as recorded is 2,622. The number of train collision were 1,247 and derailments 1,002, and they caused damage aggregating $1,842,225 to cars engines and roadways exclusive of damage to merchandise. This record is a slight decrease over the same period of the preceeding year.

General Notes.

Chief Signal Engineer W. McC. Grafton and Superintendent of Telegraphy C. E. McKimm, of the Pennsylvania, are this week making an inspection of the interlocking switches on the lines west of Pittsburg. They left Chicago yesterday morning on a special train for an inspection of the Fort Wayne road and reach here in the afternoon.

J. L. Wiles, a railroad contractor, was struck by a Big Four train at Degraff Monday and instantly killed. The section men endeavored to move a hand car before the train ran them down and Wiles, who was lifting one end was hit. Nearly every bone in his body was broken.

Yard Master John Grimsley of the Detroit Southern has taken possession of the property purchased of Dispatcher B. M. Tharp, of the C. H. & D., corner of Elm street and Bellefontaine avenue.

Notes from Findlay.

Road master J. R. Coultson of the L. E. & W., was in the city yesterday looking after the interests of his road.

Mrs. J. A. Kooken, who has been visiting her son-in-law, Charles Ruse, ticket agent of the L. E. & W., was called to her home in Celina yesterday by a message announcing that her husband had been seriously injured in an accident.

The L. E. & W. yesterday closed a contract with William A. Brady to bring the Under Southern Skies company and special baggage cars to this city from Fostoria May 2. The company goes out over the T. & O. C. to Toledo where it plays at the Valentine.

The following glass workers will leave tonight via the L. E. & W. for Hartford City, Ind., where they will be employed in the American Window Glass company No. 2: August Edgar, Oscar and David Baes, Frances Chamberlain, Sam Stout, Fred Nicklin, George and William Kilger, Dan Stockdale, Fred Neipling, Archie Malcolm, Newton Lydic and Harvey Shiner. They will probably return to Findlay when the glass factory closes which will be in about a month and a half. Findlay Republican.

COLUMBUS GROVE.

Recent Improvements Progressing.

Contracts Awarded for New Stirlen Block Construction. Other Late News.

Columbus Grove, O., April 30.—One of the pieces of work which the Columbia Telephone Company is turning out from their new factory in Ottawa, is a switchboard, which will be installed to take the place of the one now in use in this city. The board will be equipped with all modern conveniences, and will serve a very large number of subscribers. The board now in use here will be taken to the factory at Ottawa for repairs, and then sent on to Continental, to be installed there, while the less modern in use in that place, will be taken to Pandora, for installment.

The contract for the Stirlen block has been let. The brick construction has been granted to Joseph Meyers, of Ottawa, and the Columbus Grove Lumber Company, secured the contract for furnishing the building material. The work of tearing away the old frame buildings has been commenced, and work upon the fine new structure will begin soon. The building will adjoin the rooms occupied by Stirlen & Kissell's furniture and undertaking establishment, on the left, and will be thoroughly modern and up-to-date, supplied with every convenience. The block will cost at completion, about $3,500.

The pastors' union will be re-organized, and the meetings of this body held as usual. At the approach of the winter season, when other duties of the ministers became so arduous, the association resolved to dispense with meeting. The return of Rev. Davis from the west will complete the personnel of the union. Rev. E. C. Klink is president, and Rev. S. D. Conger, secretary. The first spring meeting of the union will called at an early date.

The High School Alumni Association held an interesting meeting at the Grove House on last evening, at which time plans were discussed for the reception to the incoming class, on the evening of May 23. Fifteen members were in attendance, and the association adjourned to meet at the same place on Friday evening of this week, at which time President Charles Killen will name the committees and final arrangements will be completed.

James A. Shaw has been secured as leader of the Vaughnsville band. Mr. Shaw goes to Vaughnsville this evening to assist their training.

Previous to leaving for Columbus, where she will make her future home, Mrs. D. R. Palmer entertained her Sunday school class in a most delightful manner, on last evening, at her home on east Sycamore street. More than a dozen little ladies, who attend the First Presbyterian church and sit under the instruction of Mrs. Palmer, enjoyed her hospitality.

The Frank Davidson Company gave the second production of their three night's engagement on last evening, playing "Old Farmer Hopkins." The company closes their engagement this evening, at which time the production, "The Folks Up Willow Creek," will be staged.

MISS FAY LEE,

President of the Shakespearian Club, Kansas City.

Miss Fay Lee.

"Your booklet came to my home like a message of health when I had suffered with headache, backache and bearing-down pains. I was weak, nervous and hysterical and had not consulted any doctor, thinking it would pass away in time, but instead I found that the pains increased and were more frequent. I decided to try Wine of Cardui and in a short time was much improved. It seemed to act like a charm. I kept up the treatment and the result was most satisfactory. Words fail to express my gratitude for the suffering that is now saved me. I am in fine health, physically and mentally. I can only say 'thank you', but there is much more in my heart for you."

BEARING-DOWN pains are the worst that women know. If you are suffering from this trouble you need not be uncertain about it. The pains in the abdomen and back that feel as if heavy weights were pulling down on the nerves of the stomach are "bearing-down pains" They may not be particularly severe at present but they are growing worse. That headache which nearly drives you distracted now is caused by the terrible nervous tension. The nerves soon begin to give way under the strain. You perhaps jump at any unusual disturbance, or laugh or weep. hysterically, at no apparent cause. That is what Miss Fay Lee, 603½ North Seventh Street, Kansas City, Kansas, was coming to when she rescued herself by taking Wine of Cardui. The Wine made her a strong, healthy woman again, as it has made a million other women strong and healthy. By inducing regular menstruation the entire system is relieved of the terrible wasting drains. The ligaments which hold the womb in place are strengthened by a healthy flow and that organ is returned to its normal position. Returning health is the result. This is what Wine of Cardui has done for thousands of the best women in America.

If you need advice write The Ladies' Advisory Department, The Chattanooga Medicine Company, Chattanooga Tenn., describing all your symptoms freely, and a letter of advice will be sent you. Secure a $1 00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist to-day.

FARM AND GARDEN

CELERY CULTURE.

Growing the Plants—Insect Enemies of the Young Crop.

Celery seed, like that of parsley, carrot and parsnip, parts with its vitality very quickly and is practically worthless when kept over until the second year. For sowing seed during the early part of the season the plan best suited to the requirements of the farmer or amateur grower of celery is to secure a wooden flat or tray (see the first cut) about sixteen or twenty-four inches deep, with plenty of small holes in the bottom for drainage. After filling with sifted soil stroke off even with the top and either shake down the soil or press it down by means of a board before the seeds are sown. Either sow in drills two inches apart or scatter broadcast and cover by sifting on a mere sprinkling of leaf mold or sand by means of a fine sieve

This tray can be placed in the window of a moderately warm room in the dwelling, and the soil should be watered by sprinkling very lightly as often as necessary to keep the surface from showing dryness, but the soil should not become waterlogged. The seedlings will appear in from two to three weeks, after which the tray should be turned round once each day to prevent the plants "drawing" toward the light. If early plants are needed on a somewhat larger scale, sow the seeds in like manner in a hotbed or on a greenhouse bench.

Flat or tray for early sowing or for transplanting with marker for making holes in soil into which the seedlings are set.

For later plants, from which the main crop is to be planted, sow the seeds in a cold frame or in the open ground Several methods are in vogue for starting celery plants in the open ground, and the one selected should depend entirely upon the scale on which the crop is to be grown. One plan is to sow the seed broadcast in a bed about three feet wide and of any desired length, from which the plants may be transplanted to another similar bed, and again to the open field, or they may be thinned and allowed to remain in the seed bed until the time for setting in the open ground, where they are to mature. Another method is to sow in drills ten or twelve inches apart.

The method now in use by most large growers is to prepare a tract of land by pulverizing with rose tools and then raking by hand, after which the seed is sown broadcast by means of a wheelbarrow grass seed drill The soil is sometimes pressed down with a plank after the seeds are scattered, but some growers maintain that there is a decided advantage in leaving the soil slightly uneven, as the seeds fall into the shaded places and are protected from the direct rays of the sun. The seed will become sufficiently covered by rains or watering. Should more than 20 per cent of the seed usually sown germinate it will be necessary to thin out to prevent overcrowding, with its attendant injury. To prevent the surface of the soil becoming too dry it may be necessary to partially shade the young plants during the warm days of early summer, but the shading should never be so dense as to cause them to become drawn.

Some species of grasshoppers often prove destructive pests during the early part of the season where the celery is planted near meadows or other habitat of these insects Where no fowls are allowed to run it is practicable to poison the grasshopper by means of wheat bran to which there have been added molasses and water and enough paris green to give the mixture a slightly green color.

The celery leaf tier often becomes very troublesome, not only because it destroys the leaves by eating them, but by spinning a web and tying the leaves together. As a means of controlling this insect hand picking will be effectual on a small scale, but should they become very numerous it may be necessary to place open lamps in the celery field during the night to destroy the moths as they fly about to lay their eggs.—W. R. Beattie.

Agricultural Notes.

The activity in both the foreign horse and mule trade of the United States continues up to the present time.

English beans are upright, rank, bushy growers and have large, oval, coarse pods. There are not many beans in a pod, and they are usually shelled and eaten as peas. They are rich in flavor.

Massachusetts farmers who have tried it do not give encouraging reports of alfalfa.

Corn should be grown extensively, and the silo is the cheapest method of preserving it.

VERY ANNOYING.

This Hardly Expresses What Lima People Say of It.

Any itchiness of the skin is annoying. Little danger in itching skin diseases. But they make you miserable.

Doan's Ointment is a never failing cure.

For piles, eczema, all itching troubles Lima citizens endorse it.

Mrs. Fess, of 303 west Kibby street, wife of engineer W. C. Fess, says:

"Everyone subject to pimples or blackheads knows how difficult they are to check, let alone eradicate, but very few know what will remove them and prevent recurrences. To those annoyed and embarrassed with the unsightly eruptions, I unhesitatingly advise them to go to W. M. Melville's drug store for Doan's Ointment and use it as directed. After being pestered for twelve years, after expending a lot of money and experimenting with cures innumerable, I am so enthusiastic about the results received that I never lose an opportunity of recommending the ointment and more than a score of acquaintances in Lima have reason to be thankful that such a reliable remedy for diseases of the skin and hemorrhoids is so easily obtainable."

Sold for 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., Sole agents for the United States.

And the Prospect of Democrats Meeting in Columbus is Shure.

The People of That City Are a Bit Frigid in Their Treatment of the Various Committees.

Columbus, Apr. 30.—One of the surprising developments of the past week was the sudden determination of the Republican state central committee to locate the Republican convention in Cleveland, not so much as a tribute to the desirability of that city for such purposes, as a direct slap at Columbus for her indifference to the conventions of both parties. Cleveland was not a candidate for the honor and her own citizens were the most surprised people in the state when the result of the Republican committee's deliberation was announced. Nobody appeared in behalf of Cleveland, but she was selected on the first ballot by the decisive vote of 12 in her favor to 4 for Columbus, notwithstanding the capital was represented before the committee by citizens who put forth her alleged claims. Those "claims," when boiled down, consisted merely of a statement of her willingness to have the convention come here if the committee saw fit. It was the coldest-blooded proposition ever submitted to any such body of men in this state or probably in any other. No inducements were offered for the convention and no special anxiety displayed to have it come here. Naturally the Republican committee, in selecting Tuesday and Wednesday, May 27-28 as the date of the convention, selected Cleveland as the place. As a matter of fact the members would have selected Shanesville or Mudsoc in preference to Columbus under the circumstances.

This summary treatment of the capital by the Republicans raises the strong probability that the Democrats will "go and do likewise." Any city in the state ambitious to entertain the Democratic delegates may now put forth its claim with every assurance that they will be candidly heard by the state central committee, which will meet in this city about the middle of May, the exact date having not yet been fixed. Prominent Columbus Democrats say that they will refuse to go before the committee with any arguments in favor of bringing the convention here, in view of the frigid "inducements" offered by Columbus citizens to secure it. The chances therefore, are decidedly in favor of another location. Sandusky is preparing to make a bid for the occasion, offering the auditorium and other attractions of Cedar Point as the magnet with which to draw the convention thither. It is understood that Toledo will also enter her bid in due time and Zanesville is also regarded as a possible competitor. Other cities will undoubtedly be heard from and there is nothing to prevent any from entering the list.

The sensational scenes enacted in the lower branch of the legislature during the past week in connection with the passage of the general appropriation bills, will afford excellent Democratic material in the coming campaign and for a long time afterward. The debate witnessed the revolt of Representative Price, of Athens against his colleagues on the Republican side, over the matter of the Athens county asylum land steal. Hailing from Athens county himself, Mr. Price knew something about the nature of this graft, and he did not hesitate to tell it. He not only spoke against it, but entered a solemn protest against it in writing, which, when read by the clerk created consternation in the chamber. The Democratic members have a right to be proud of their subsequent course on the appropriation bills, for they opposed the grafts to the limit and forced the Republican majority to assume responsibility for all of them. The conscience of the Republican party will repudiate the majority's course and approve the manly attitude of the Athens county Republican representative, who warned the Republican side that it was bent on the ruin of its own party in this measure. The facts should be rehearsed on every stump in the next campaign and when they are known cannot fail of their logical effect in making more substantial the Democratic plurality in the state that promises to be rolled up next November.

While the St. Louis exposition bill is being knocked into shape, legislators who would like to be on the commission and especially those longing to be made executive commissioner—to which it is proposed to attach a $2,500 salary—are much worried about the prohibition of Section 19, Article 2, of the state constitution, which reads:

"No senator or representative shall, during the term for which he shall have been elected, or for one year thereafter, be appointed to any civil office under this state, which shall be created or the emolument of which shall have been increased during the term for which he shall have been elected."

Senator Archer, who introduced the first exposition bill, wants the executive commissionership, but since he belongs to the anti-Hanna crowd and refuses to get out of line for the governorship, the administration people are talking about Representative Hagenbach, of Champaign county. Both of them, however, as well as all the other aspiring legislators, seem to come within the prohibition of the clause of the constitution quoted above.

The legislature will be lucky if it adjourns by May 5, according to the house resolution not yet concurred in by the senate, and the chances are that a week later will find the statesmen still here. There is an equal chance, however, that they will return next January. There is no certainty that Gov. Nash's new taxation laws will produce the revenue necessary to operate the state government, and this fact is very likely to lead to an extra session. The supreme court case against the Cleveland board of control may also have the same result, unless a speedy decision is reached. If the decision is against the city of Cleveland, an act of the legislature will be necessary. If it is rendered when the legislature is not in session, an extra session may have to be called, to enact uniform laws for the government of Ohio cities.

ODD KETTLE HOLDER.

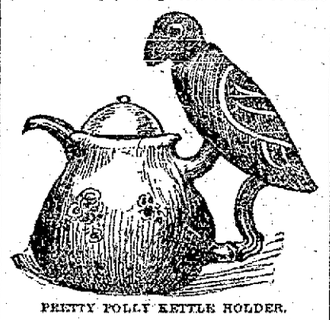

A Picturesque Affair In Imitation of a Parrot.

Materials: Pieces of velvet of two contrasting colors, white canton flannel or ticking for lining, some rather coarse crewel silk and boot buttons.

These are very easy to make and sell capitally at bazaars.

The head and body parts are cut separately, and in cutting the former turnings must be allowed all around. The illustration shows you exactly what shape the pieces should be.

Fold a piece of velvet for the body part and lay your pattern on it so that the fold will come in the center of the back. Cut a piece of ticking the same size for lining. Embroider the piece of velvet in stem stitch with any color you like, curving the lines, as shown in the illustration. Lay velvet and lining together, cut an inch wide piece of velvet of the contrasting color, run round on the outside, turn over and hem neatly on the inside.

Cut two pieces of the same color of the crossway strip for the head, allowing for turnings. Join together all round except the lower edge, stuff with odd bits of rags, join across and sew in the buttons for eyes. Surround the buttons with outstanding stitches of the crewel silk and make a topknot by sewing over and over the top with the same silk.

Any fool can make money, but it takes a wise man to spend it.

MALARIA An Invisible Enemy to Health

Means bad air, and whether it comes from the low lands and marshes of the country, or the filthy sewers and drain pipes of the cities and towns, its effect upon the human system is the same.

These atmospheric poisons are breathed into the lungs and taken up by the blood, and the foundation of some long, debilitating illness is laid. Chills and fever, chronic dyspepsia, torpid and enlarged liver, kidney troubles, jaundice and biliousness are frequently due to that invisible foe, Malaria. Noxious gases and unhealthy matter collect in the system because the liver and kidneys fail to act, and are poured into the blood current until it becomes so polluted and sluggish that the poisons literally break through the skin, and carbuncles, boils, abscesses, ulcers and various eruptions of an indolent character appear, depleting the system, and threatening life itself.

The germs and poisons that so oppress and weaken the body and destroy the life-giving properties of the blood, rendering it thin and watery, must be overcome and carried out of the system before the patient can hope to get rid of Malaria and its effects.

SSS does this and quickly produces an entire change in the blood, reaching every organ and stimulating them to vigorous, healthy action. S. S. S. possesses not only purifying but tonic properties, and the general health improves, and the appetite increases almost from the first dose. There is no Mercury, Potash, Arsenic or other mineral in S. S. S. It is strictly and entirely a vegetable remedy.

Write us about your case, and our physicians will gladly help you by their advice to regain your health. Book on blood and skin diseases sent free.

Many Failures

Reported Under Patterson Substitute.

Out of 109 Applicants Only Three Passed the Examination,

And the List of Questions Furnished by the State School Commissioner Were Much Harder Than Ever Before.

So far as improving the chances of scholars who test the Boxwell examination for the purpose of getting admittance to the high school, the chances brought about by the Patterson law has, in the first instance, proven a decided failure. Out of 109 who took the examination last week only three passed and two of the number were teachers who now hold certificates. One of the objections to the Boxwell law, which the Patterson substitute endeavored to remove, was the supposed practice on the part of boards of examiners in the various counties of preparing a too difficult list of questions. The result of the first examination in Allen county is proof enough that the effect has been contrary to the original intention and state school commissioner Bonebrake, from whose office the questions are sent will have to make more careful comparisons.

The Allen county board met yesterday and went carefully over the manuscripts, but even after giving every scholar the benefit of the doubt in his answers, only three were found to have reached the standard fixed by the new law. The minimum grade on any one branch is 50 percent and the average 70, and yet 106 applicants failed to reach the figures.

It is the general opinion of the teachers that the questions were as difficult, if not more so, than those of a teachers examination prepared by the board of examinations, and that if they had been prepared for that purpose, instead of for scholars who had not attained the high school, the general opinion would have been that the examination was unusually hard.

The grading of the manuscripts is left entirely to the members of the board, which consists of C. A. Graham, C. L. Fess and Edward Faeth. It was not their purpose to pass anyone who had not come up to the requirements and yet they were not exacting beyond bounds. Other counties may report a better showing because of less care being taken by examining boards, but the average in the state will fall far below former reports. A complete list of the questions appeared in the semi-weekly edition of the Times-Democrat last Friday.

PLEA

Of Not Guilty is Entered

On the Docket

Opposite the Charges Against Polser.

Prisoner Brought Into Court at Noon and Properly Arraigned.

Ridenour & Halfhill Will Conduct the Defense But the Date of the Trial Has Not Yet Been Fixed.

Frank Polser made his first appearance in open court this morning and was arraigned on the charge of murder in the first degree to which he pleaded not guilty. A second indictment containing two counts, charges him with shooting Tom Connair with intent to kill or wound. The same plea was intered to the second indictment and Polser was taken back to jail to await the day of his trial, the date of which has not yet been set.

The prisoner entered the court room at 12:15 accompanied by Sheriff Barr and Deputy Sheriff Summers and a double precaution against a possible attempt to escape was taken by attaching the hand cuffs. He took the situation calmly, even pleasantly, as he chatted with those about him in a free and easy way and evidently feels that he has a chance of getting out of the serious predicament with a light sentence if not altogether.

Polser will be defended by Ridenour & Halfhill and this fact is worthy of particular notice for the reason that the indictment against the prisoner was returned by the grand jury at the time Mr. Ridenour was prosecutor. The latter evidently knows more about the circumstances connected with the murder and what prompted it than any other member of the bar, and for that reason will be the better able to defend the prisoner.

The indictment was read to Polser by Deputy Clerk Graham and owing to the hour of arraignment there were but few people in the court room. After the usual preliminaries, Judge Cunningham asked the prisoner how he would plead and Polser in a voice clear and cool replied, "not guilty." The plea was so entered and after a few minutes conference with attorney Halfhill, he was conducted to the jail.

The First Jury.

The jury selected to try the issues joined in the case of Wm. B. Morris vs. The Farmers and Merchants bank of Jackson Center includes James Crane, James E. Duffield, James Ackerman, W. S. Bentley, Charles Hesling, Fred Herold, Thomas Youngpeter, Harry Rumple, Mike Lynch, Paul Weisenmeyer, George Bowsher and Silas Ulrey.

Two Divorce Suits.

Two divorce suits crept into court yesterday afternoon in one case the husband bringing suit and in the other the wife.

Edward J. Coolahan wants a divorce from Jessie Coolahan because she neglected to perform the household duties and threw dishes and furniture at him. They were married October 2, 1898 and have a son, aged four years. Klinger & Quail represent the plaintiff.

In a petition of more length filed by Ridenour & Halfhill, Sarah R. Draper asks for a separation from Walter A. Draper on the grounds of gross neglest of duty and cruelty. She says he failed to provide for herself and four children; refused to pay his debts which compelled them to move from place to place; neglect her when she was confined to her bed with sciatic rheumatism and did not provide her with help or a nurse during her confinement.

When sick in bed she says he told her it was a pity she couldn't die and that he loved her like a snake. She wants a divorce, custody of the children and asks that he may be deprived of any interest in the household goods and one acre of land in Westminister.

MARRIAGE

Thomas Broderick, of the C. H. & D. Shops, Weds Miss Lizzie Shea, in the Indiana Town.

At Montpelier, Ind., today, Mr. Thomas Broderick, of this city, and Miss Lizzie Shea, of the Indiana town mentioned, were united in marriage, the ceremony being performed in the Catholic church at Montpelier. The event was a brilliant and happy one and was attended by a number of the groom's friends from this city. Mr. Broderick was, until recently, employed as a foreman in Broderick & Quinlan's boiler works at Montpelier and is now employed in the C. H. & D. shops in this city. He and his bride will make their home in Lima, where they have a legion of friends who wish them a long and happy married life.

Sleep claims one-third of a lifetime, so the bedroom and its furniture are after all a most important part of the home. J. W. Rowlands has a complete line of suits from $15 and up.
